READING COMPREHENSION 1

A Spooky Night

Tonight is Halloween! Emma and her brother Tom get ready for trick-or-treating. Emma wears a black witch costume with a pointy hat, and Tom wears a white skeleton costume. Their mom paints Tom's face gray and black.

At 6 p.m., they take a big orange bag and leave the house with their dad. First, they visit their neighbor Mr. Brown. He has three pumpkins on his porch and a fake spider web on the door. "Trick or treat!" they shout, and Mr. Brown gives them chocolate bars. Next, they go to Lucy's house. Lucy's mom gives them lollipops and gummy bats. At the third house, a man dressed as a vampire opens the door and gives them candy corn. Emma and Tom visit ten houses in total. At 9 p.m., they walk back home, tired but happy. They sit at the kitchen table and count their candy together. They have 52 candies! Tom eats two chocolate bars before bed, and Emma saves hers for tomorrow.

Script 1 — Answer the questions

"Hi! My name is Jake. On Halloween, I always go to my friend Lucy's house. Lucy's house is very scary! There are five pumpkins on the porch and a big black cat next to the door. Inside, there's a skeleton hanging from the ceiling and a spider web in the corner. We watch scary movies and eat candy. My favorite candy is chocolate, but Lucy prefers gummy bears. This year, I'm going to wear a ghost costume, and Lucy is going to be a witch. We are going to meet at 7 p. m. and go trick-or-treating with four other friends. Last year, we visited eight houses and got a lot of candy."

Script 2 — True or False

"Halloween is on the 31 st of October. Children wear costumes and go to different houses. They say "trick or treat" and get candy. Some people decorate their houses with pumpkins, spiders, and ghosts. Black cats are also a symbol of Halloween. In the evening, families sometimes watch scary movies together. Many people carve funny or scary faces on pumpkins and put a candle inside. Some towns organize a Halloween parade in the streets. Children often go trick-or-treating with their parents or older siblings. At the end of the night, they usually have a lot of candy to share with their family."

ACTIVITIES FOR THE STICKERS

- Decorate the haunted scene: Students place the stickers onto the large listening box (Script 4), following oral or written instructions.
- Vocabulary matching: The student places the correct sticker next to the corresponding English word.
- Create your own monster: They combine several stickers to build a character and then describe it using sentences with adjectives ("My monster is green and funny").
- Put the story in order: 4–5 stickers are handed out and the student arranges them to tell a mini Halloween story, writing a sentence beneath each one.
- Complete the sentence with the sticker: Strips of paper with incomplete sentences ("There is a ____ under the bed") where the student places the corresponding sticker in the blank space.
